

YES! I want to help NESYFC bring Good News to young people in North East Scotland

By filling in this form you can be part of our exciting work with the nation's youth. We do everything in partnership with our individual supporters - without people like you we could not tell a single young person about Jesus. Giving your name and address means we'll keep you updated so you can pray for us. You can also offer to volunteer with us and by supplying bank details you can support us financially.
